UNIVERSITY REGISTRATION

Bona fide students of Sikkim University are provided with a one-time registration certificate for the programme of their study. The student shall fill up the prescribed form online and submit the same to the principal for registration. The registration dates are notified by the University and further circulated by the college on its notice board, Facebook page (Sikkim Government College, Mangshila) respective WhatsApp group among others. Failure to register, and submit relevant documents on time shall automatically lead to cancellation of admission. For any issues related to registration, Students should write to suregistration@cus.ac.in

Withdrawal

Students wishing to withdraw in mid-session must apply to the Principal in writing. They should surrender all the documents issued by the College. Subsequently, their names will be permanently removed from the College academic rolls. Students without COI/SS who withdraw in mid-session automatically forfeit their deposits and payments made to the College.

Students admitted to the 1st semester, who desire to withdraw their admission, should apply for withdrawal after 30 days from the date of their admission. For Migration Certificate, students should apply in the prescribed form to the University through the Head of the Institution. The form may be collected from the office of the Dean of Students' Affairs.

Transfer

Students wishing to apply for a Transfer Certificate must take prior permission from Sikkim University and submit a written application at least three days in advance to the Principal. Those without COI/SS must pay a transfer fee of Rs. 50/- to the College for the same.

Inward Transfer: The subject combination he/she is pursuing must be one of the combinations offered in the college. If approved, the student has to produce Original Transfer and Character Certificate, Identity card etc. from the previous college. After that, he/she should report to Sikkim University and obtain a NOC. If the applicant is granted NOC by the Sikkim University, they will be enrolled in the college. However, it is the responsibility of the concerned student to ensure that minimum attendance of 75 % is met.

Outward Transfer: An applicant should first obtain a written consent from the college he/she wants to get transferred to. Then they must seek the permission of the Principal, Sikkim Government College, Mangshila to leave the college. Once approved, they should get necessary clearance as directed by Dean's office. Their name would be struck off from the college rolls and relevant documents will be handed over to them. They must then write to Sikkim University to obtain the NOC to join the new college.

Note: Sikkim Government College, Mangshila does not generally encourage inter-college transfer. It is only considered in exceptional cases.

Anti-Ragging Committee and Anti-Ragging Squads

In accordance with the direction of the Supreme Court of India and UGC Regulations vide Letter No. F.1-16/2009(CPP-II) dated 21st October, 2009 and Paragraph 7.1.1 of Sikkim University Anti-Ragging Rules, 2009, the College has constituted Anti-Ragging Committee and Anti - Ragging Rules Squads with the basic objectives to co-ordinate, monitor and regulate anti-ragging activities in College, Hostels, Library and Canteens of the College.

Principal is the ex-official Chairman of the Anti-Ragging Committee and the Dean of Students' Affairs is the ex officio Chairman of the Anti-Ragging Squad. The aggrieved students can lodge a complaint in the office of Principal/Dean of Students' Affairs/Head of the Department of the concerned subject.

To ensure a ragging free environment in the college, every student and their parent must submit an anti- ragging affidavit during the first admission and at the time of annual registration.

Examination System

Sikkim Government College, Mangshila follows a semester-based system as per the guidelines laid by UGC. The semester based system comprises of six semesters for UG programmes. Each semester is of six months duration comprising of two sessional tests and a University Odd & Even semester examination at the end of each semester. After successful completion of each semester, students are eligible for promotion to next semester.

The semester system makes the students more accountable and, therefore, more focused on the course work. Accountability promotes attendance of the students Course work is also more intensive and performance oriented compelling the student to keep up with the lectures and assignments on daily basis. This leads to frequent and needed interaction between teachers and students resulting in a more comprehensive social and academic atmosphere.

Advantages of Semester System

1. Rigorous, continuous and one-on-one system of evaluation.
2. Assignments are completed within the stipulated me frame.
3. At the end of the year examination module, students tend to take their courses lightly which is not true of the semester system.
4. Trains students to excel and builds up confidence.
5. Institutional attachment increases sharply.
6. Increased number of courses, leading to a broader based education.

Sessional Tests and End-Term Examination

a. A student who has applied for permission to sit for the examination, appeared in all the internal session exams and attended at least 75% of the classes in a paper shall be eligible to sit for the examination of that particular paper. However, Principal, on satisfying himself/herself about the genuineness of the case, may condone shortage of attendance by 5% if duly recommended by the concerned HoD/ IC.

b. Ordinarily a student shall not be detained in any Semester even if the student attends less than 75% of the class held in that particular semester and/or fails in the End Semester Examination subject to the condition that the student has to clear all papers within the stipulated number of semesters as is fixed by the University failing which the student would be declared 'failed' and has to restart from the first semester of the course in case still willing to pursue study.

c. Internal and external evaluation shall be in the proportion of 50:50 wherein the first two session tests shall be of 25 marks each. The End Semester Examination shall have a total score of 50 marks.

d. Students seeking to repeat a paper or more shall seek permission of the Controller of Examination (CoE) through the Principal of the College at least one month before the date of examination and, if permitted, shall pay the fees prescribed by the University from time to time at least one week before the date of examination.

e. The End-Semester theory examination will be of 2 hours duration. The examination routine for the End-Semester will be prepared by the office of the CoE. The CoE shall notify the End-Semester examination routine at least one week before the actual date of commencement of the examination.

Evaluation Pattern

Weightage (in %) First/Second Sessional Test -	50
End-Semester Examination -	50
Total -	100
